

We empower you to reach the world.

Thanks to our tailor-made language solutions we can quickly and reliably satisfy the needs of our customers. Our goal is to further expand our global lead in this service segment. That is why we are looking to hire a specialist who will strengthen our Marketing team and work at our company headquarters in Ulm.

Online marketing & graphic design specialist m/f/d

Your responsibilities

- Online marketing design: You will design the graphics for our social media presence and our web site. You will act as a design issue consultant for your colleagues.
- Brand communication: You will help maintain a holistic appearance for mt-g's mailings and corporate design.
- Print knowledge: You will coordinate our print advertisements and types of print media and produce these.
- Website: You will take responsibility for changes to the website and communicate with external service providers about how these are implemented.
- Teamwork: You will support your marketing team by carrying out assignments as they arise.

Your profile

- Education: You have a degree in marketing, graphic design, or a similar field or have 3–5 years of relevant professional experience.
- Adobe Creative Cloud: You have professional knowledge of Photoshop and InDesign. Knowledge of additional graphics and video applications is a plus.
- Language skills: You have a good command of English. Knowledge of additional languages is a plus.
- Mindset: You are open to new challenges that you are able to tackle with a can-do attitude. You find regular communication with members of your team to be an essential part of your day-to-day work.

At mt-g, you can expect to work with an open-minded team on which you will gradually carve out your own professional niche. We look forward to receiving your application.

Our reliability is the key to our success and the satisfaction of our employees. In addition, we maintain a fair corporate culture with an abundance of team spirit that gives you sufficient room to maneuver and also affords you with opportunities for individual growth and development.
